Shreveport Police charge teens with car burglaries

Suspect Rotreyvion Young

Suspect Cly'deriyon O'Neal

Shreveport Police detectives have charged a pair of suspects in connection with a rash of car break-ins in west Shreveport.

Back on November 20, 2018, agents with the Louisiana Department of Corrections arrested 19-year-old Rotreyvion Young and 18-year-old Cly'deriyon O'Neal. Shreveport Police detectives were notified and, working with other local law enforcement agencies including the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office, were able to link the duo to approximately 60 car burglaries reported over the past two months in and around the Pines Road area.

Investigators charged Young with 43 counts of Simple Burglary, 16 counts of Attempted Simple Burglary, one count of Theft of a Motor Vehicle, and one count of Theft. O'Neal was charged with 17 counts of Simple Burglary, and 9 counts of Attempted Simple Burglary. Both suspects are being held at the Caddo Correctional Center.

The police department would like to take this opportunity to remind our neighbors not to leave valuables in their vehicles unless there is absolutely no other alternative and to always lock your doors.
