FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Trio of suspects jailed in murder of Shreveport Police officer

Suspect Trevon Anderson

Suspect Glenn Frierson

Suspect Pierre Lawrence

Three men are now behind bars following their arrest in the slaying of Shreveport Police Officer Chateri Payne.

Since the launch of the investigation, law enforcement officials from across the region have worked tirelessly in search of information and evidence connected to the tragic loss. Those efforts came to fruition Tuesday evening with the arrests of three men now charged with murder. Trevon Anderson, 26 of the 1600 block of Midway Avenue, Lawrence Pierre, 22, of the 4100 block of Honda Drive, and 38 year old Glenn Frierson of the 2900 block of Holly Street, each face charges of Second Degree Murder.

The investigation is ongoing at this hour. Chief of Police Ben Raymond will hold a media briefing to discuss details of the arrests of the suspects. The briefing will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday January 16, 2019 in the Assembly Room located on the second floor of the Shreveport Police Department's Administration Building.
