A Disorderly Person Call Leads To A Vehicle Chase And Felony Arrest

Devon Thomas

In the early hours of May 28, at approximately 1:10 a.m., Shreveport police officers responded to a disorderly person call in the 3000 block of Lakeshore Drive. Upon arrival, officers observed the suspect's vehicle attempting to flee the scene.

Officers initiated a traffic stop, but the driver refused to comply, leading to a vehicle pursuit. The chase continued until the vehicle eventually stopped.

The driver, identified as 59-year-old Devon Thomas, was apprehended and taken into custody. Thomas has been charged with one count of aggravated flight from a police officer and one count of possession of a Schedule I narcotic.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to ensuring the safety and security of our community. We appreciate the cooperation and support of the public in helping us maintain law and order.
