Arrest Made in Violent Domestic Incident

Lorenz Miller

On June 7th Lorenz Miller was arrested following a violent domestic incident. Miller is accused of the intentional use of force or violence against his dating partner, which occurred in the presence of three juveniles aged 13 years old or younger. The victim was strangled until she lost consciousness and was observed to have visible injuries.

Miller faces multiple charges including:

- Battery of a Dating Partner with Strangulation
- Three Counts of Battery of a Dating Partner with Child Endangerment
- Battery of a Dating Partner with Serious Bodily Injury

This arrest underscores the commitment of the Shreveport Police Department to protecting victims of domestic violence and ensuring that offenders are held accountable for their actions.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty
