Second Suspect Arrested in May 9th Home Invasion

Timberly Richmond

Shreveport Police detectives have arrested a second suspect in connection with the May 9, 2025, home invasion that occurred in the 2700 block of Amherst Street.

Timberly Richmond was taken into custody on May 10, 2025, at approximately 11:00 a.m. after being located by officers. Her arrest follows that of Nehemiah Tillman, who had previously been taken into custody in connection with a separate shooting incident on Monkhouse Drive. Detectives were able to link both suspects to the Amherst Street home invasion.

Both Richmond and Tillman have been charged with home invasion in connection with this case. The investigation remains active and ongoing.

Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers tips can also be submitted anonymously via the P3 Tips app.
