Woman Arrested for Attempted Homicide Following Lomax Street Shooting

Vernita Rambo

On May 15, 2025, Shreveport Police officers were dispatched to a report of a shooting in the 500 block of Lomax Street. Upon arrival, officers located a male victim suffering from multiple gunshot wounds.

The victim was transported to a local hospital with life-threatening injuries. Shreveport Police Department Violent Crimes detectives responded to the scene and launched an investigation.

Following the investigation, detectives identified Vernita Rambo as the suspected shooter. Rambo has been charged with Attempted Second Degree Homicide in connection with the incident.

The victim remains hospitalized but is still alive at this time.
