Late Night Labor Day House Fire

Shreveport, LA- At approximately 11:00 p.m. on September 1, 2025, Shreveport Fire Department crews were dispatched to reports of a house fire in the 6100 block of Southern Avenue.

After an initial search for smoke in the area, Rescue 9 located the source of the fire, a residence fully involved in flames. Additional units were dispatched and arrived on scene within minutes and immediately assisted in defensive firefighting operations to protect nearby structures from exposure.

A total of 7 fire units and 24 firefighters were committed to the incident. Through coordinated efforts the incident was brought under control with no reports of injuries to firefighters or citizens. The origin and cause of the fire remain under investigation by Shreveport Fire Department Arson Investigators.
