Two Women Arrested in Separate Aggravated Battery Incidents

Kathleen Strong & Genevieve Capella

Shreveport Police have arrested two women in separate incidents that occurred on November 7th and 8th, resulting in serious injuries to both victims.

On November 7, 2025, officers responded to the 500 block of Stone Avenue regarding a reported stabbing. Upon arrival, officers learned that 25-year-old Kathleen Strong had allegedly cut another woman in the face with a knife following a verbal altercation. The victim sustained lacerations to her face and was transported to a local hospital for treatment.

Strong was taken into custody and charged with one count of Aggravated Battery. During her arrest, officers also located what was believed to be a narcotics pipe commonly used for smoking methamphetamine on her person. She was additionally charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

In an unrelated incident on November 8, 2025, officers responded to the 400 block of Columbia Street in reference to another aggravated battery. During their investigation, officers determined that Genevieve Capella struck another female in the head with a glass alcohol bottle during a confrontation. The victim suffered a significant laceration to her head and was transported to a local hospital for medical care.

Capella was arrested and charged with one count of Aggravated Battery with a Dangerous Weapon.

Both victims are expected to recover from their injuries.
