Shreveport Police Arrest Serial Property Crimes Suspect

Corey Knighton

Shreveport Police have arrested a man believed to be responsible for a series of property-related crimes across the city. Property Crimes Detectives, working in partnership with the Shreveport-Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force, took Corey Knighton into custody following an extensive investigation.

Knighton now faces a wide range of charges, including:

- Six counts of Theft
- Five counts of Access Device Fraud
- Five counts of Identity Theft
- Four counts of Illegal Possession of Stolen Things
- One count of Forgery

The types of crimes and victim circumstances connected to Knighton are numerous, and detectives are continuing to investigate additional incidents he may be involved in. Knighton, a known repeat offender, has a documented history of theft and white-collar criminal activity.

The Shreveport Police Department is grateful for the diligent work of our investigators and our partners in the Financial Crimes Task Force as they continue holding individuals accountable who target members of our community.
