Shreveport Police Respond to Domestic Violence Incident

Demetrian Hockless

Just after 3:00 a.m. on January 5, Shreveport Police officers responded to a domestic disturbance call in the 6800 block of West 70th Street.

While en route, officers were advised that a man inside the residence was armed with a knife and actively assaulting a female. Dispatchers remained on the line with a terrified caller and could hear a disturbing scene unfolding in the background. Dispatch personnel reported hearing loud yelling, a female stating she had been struck in the nose, and what sounded like an ongoing physical altercation.

Upon arrival, responding officers were able to take Demetrian Hockless into custody. He now faces multiple serious charges, including home invasion, domestic abuse battery, criminal property damage, and resisting an officer.

Fortunately, no life-threatening injuries were reported; however, this incident could have easily resulted in catastrophic consequences.

The Shreveport Police Department reminds the public that domestic violence is never the answer. If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic abuse, help is available. SPD remains committed to protecting victims and holding offenders accountable.
