PRESS RELEASE

October 9, 2014

Domestic Violence activities planned for Government Plaza

Mayor Cedric Glover is declaring Friday, October 10, as "Wear Purple Day" in the City of Shreveport in order to help raise awareness for the ongoing efforts to end domestic violence.

A press conference will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. on the steps of Government Plaza, 505 Travis St. The event is being coordinated through Project Celebration, Inc., in conjunction with Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

In addition to the reading of the proclamation, a balloon release and the sounding of sirens by local first responders will also help serve as reminders of the negative impact that domestic violence has in our community.

The public is invited and encouraged to wear purple as a show of solidarity and support for victims and survivors of domestic violence. Purple t-shirts will be available at the event for $10.
