Suspect LeeDarius Rogers

Shreveport Police detectives have now identified the suspect they believe was part of a trio of bandits who committed the armed robbery of a local liquor store last week in south Shreveport.

Back on February 3, 2017, Shreveport Police officers arrested two men after they were found to be connection with the armed robbery of the Thrifty Liquor store located in the 8600 block of Youree Drive. During the investigation, it was learned that a third man, allegedly working in tandem with two other previously arrested robbery suspects was able to elude authorities on foot.

An ongoing query into the man's identity has led authorities to procure and arrest warrant for 23 year old LeeDarius Rogers of Shreveport. Rogers is believed to be the final suspect in the case and authorities are actively seeking to acquire his whereabouts. Rogers is sought on one charge each of Armed Robbery and Armed Robbery with a firearm. Bond in the matter has been set at 200,000.00.
